The Wheels of Progress . . .

TIME honored but much worn out is that metaphor 'the wheels of progress'. Thoughtful men have long since come to view it with an eye of suspicion. For, while it may be true that the ancient hand which designed the wheel did much to lessen human burdens, it is likewise true that every lessening of human discomfort has not necessarily meant progress. Progress means going forward not backwards; but wheels can easily move in either direction! Wherefore, it behooves a man to think twice before he essays to use this phrase 'the wheels of progress'. Too often what he thinks is carrying him forward is really carrying him backwards. Then, of what use is a 'train of tomorrow' if man has destroyed the very possibility of 'tomorrow'?

Ezechiel, great prophet of ages past, once spoke mysteriously of a vision in which he saw wheels. "Whithersoever the spirit went" he said, "thither as the spirit went, the wheels also were lifted up withal, and followed it; for the spirit of life was in the wheels." This we may interpret here to mean that progress is a matter primarily of the 'spirit' rather than of anything else.

Graduates! You have learned this eternal truth from God's own Mother! You, of all people, should never mistake mere motion for true human betterment! Your 'train of '49' is quite an advance over the primeval ox cart; but the simple 'wheel' made both of these possible. And great things yet can you make possible, provided you have absorbed the mystery in the words of that prophet in Israel: "For the spirit of life was in the wheels."

Editorial . . .

WE HAVE EMBARKED

on a long and a somewhat difficult journey which will be as good and wonderful as we, ourselves, make it. The route on which we are to travel is entirely up to us—straight and true to its course of Purity and Good, or swerving dangerously over high precipices of Evil. Whichever it might be, may the Engine of Conscience and Common Sense keep us on the right track.

May each bend and mile which lies ahead bring us to a knowledge of God and to a realization of His love for us, to a right choice in life, to a better understanding of human nature, and to a feeling of good will, so urgently needed in the world today. Let each turn of the wheels bring us closer to God and to His Home, the Final Stop, and prepare us for the time when we step down from the Train of Life and meet our life's Engineer face to face.

The Amaranth of 1949 will try to bring you some of the journey already covered and help you to remember how enjoyable it has been so far. May it also be a tribute to the Sisters of Saint Francis who have been an inspiration and a help in making the miles so short and yet so wonderful!

As the whistle blows, we can see the first lap of our journey already ended. May the new one just around the bend be equally fruitful and enjoyable!
